The Most Popular
Translated Bibles
All Are Riddled
With “Blasphemous Names”

Learn what are “Blasphemous Names” and what “Beast” (or what Religion) they came from.

“Church” is a blasphemous name, mistranslated from the Bible
Greek name “Ekklesia.” Editor Willard R. Wade

Rev 17:3 I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet-colored beast, full of names of blasphemy. Notice The great whore is riding on the scarlet (red) “The Beast.” The Beast is her “religion.” She has fed The belly of her “beast” (her religion) full of her names of blasphemy. A name of blasphemy is a name that speak injuriously against God and her names of blasphemy are mistranslated into the most popular Bibles with the only purpose to deceive the Saints of God. Now look at this blasphemous name Mat 28:1 “first day of the “week” a false translated blasphemous name that deceives the Saints into thinking Christ resurrected on the day of the sun god or Sunday. Just one of many blasphemous names created by the Catholic church to deceive the Saints about the resurrection.

Blasphemous names such as Jesus, Church, angel, easter, Month, week.and other blasphemous names falsely translated into the Bible that cause the Saints to commit idolatry in their worship.

The name “Church” is a name of blasphemy

The First Church is the Catholic Church. All churches are the daughters of the Catholic Church.

The Mother of All Churches

Catholic Church

The Great Whore is riding on a beast (or riding on a false teaching, doctrine or her instructions is her religion) that she has fed to the full of names of blasphemy for the only purpose to deceive the Saints of God. Translated Bibles of the great whore and her daughter churches have riddled their Bibles full of blasphemous names to deceive the Saints of God. Here is just one Example of a false translated blasphemous Bible name that deceives the Saints, “The Christ resurrected on a The day of Sunday, the day of the artificial measure of the week of the seven sky gods” (Mat 28:1). Beware, This total deception of the great whore is so complicated the entire world of the Saints are deceived.

Not only will this deception cause God to reject the deceived Saint in their idol worship but the disciples of Satan deceive the Saints by teaching you can be deceived and commit idolatry in worship and you will still be saved.

Do not let the Great Whore and her church daughters deceive you.

Rev {17:3} And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet-colored beast, full of names of blasphemy. 17:5b THE MOTHER OF THE [other church] WHORES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE earth.

Reason blasphemous names. If there is nothing wrong with the teaching of blasphemous names that are mistranslated into our Bible records by the mother of all churches, the Great Whore, then why would we be warned about “blasphemous names” and why give us warning we are to come out of the teaching of the great whore and her blasphemous names.

Rev 18:4} And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come forth, my people, out of her, that you have no fellowship with her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues. {18:5} for her sins have reached even unto heaven, and God has remembered her works without law.

Look close to what Christ is teaching.

Mat 7:22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by your name, and by your name cast out demons, and by your name do many mighty works? 23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, you that do works without law.

We warn you, if you hold your eternal life to be precious and if you with all your might and your spirit do want to be saved, We warn you, most all popular translated Bibles are falsely translated with blasphemous names for the only purpose to deceive the Saints of God.

Rev. 17:3b The Apostle John gives us warning about "Blasphemous names." Learn what are the blasphemous names purposely mistranslated in the Bible records by devils that will deceive and cause us to loose eternal life.

Mat 10:16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. There is a harmless conduct of "doves" but how much do you know the militant and very strick "The wafare side of doves?"

In everything be wise and learn first how to always take only the safe course.

Christ warns his Saints to "Be wise as serpents" or Devils. "Wisdom" is only the ability in how to use truth in knowledge. Isa 53:12b by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify [or make sinless] many;

You can not be wise without first learning truth in the knowledge that will save self. To deceive you, Serpents or Devils are clever and adroit and the clever Devil will tell you to watch out for other Devils as if they are not a Devil. It is your responsibility to discover who is trying to deceive you and rob you of eternal life with your heavenly Father. To be saved, It becomes the individual responsibility to educate self to know the differences between the teaching of the true messengers of God or else be deceived by the false teaching of the Devil.

This actually happened. As a young Bible student (1945), we heard a debate in “Ekklesia’ being made in the Abilene Christian College auditorium which is now called The Abilene Christian University. One very clever young man was chosen to be like and teach like the Devil or the opposer of God in a public debate. He thoroughly knew both sides of the disputed subject. In the debate this brilliant young Bible student with clever and cunning with adroit build up a straw man, then he would tear down “the straw man” as all clever Devils do in any debate. He stomps the floor to put on a deceptive show and he was loud and vociferous. To prejudice the minds of the people in the audience against his opponent, he was very clever as he asks the audience the “cloaked question” that alludes his opponent is teaching something that he in truth is not teaching. The clever foot stomping hand clapping he made his opponent who knew less about the subject of truth and the show how of the devil is fooling the people, he was so convincing he made the opposition appear to be the wimpy loser. He did the work of the opposer Satan so well most of the entire student body believed he was not just pretending and some in ignorance were fearful that he may be actually teaching truth. He could not convince his brethren and friends that he was simply imitating and teaching what he had heard and had watched the Devils do. Sadly this brilliant young Bible student left the school because of total withdrawal by his brethren which only proves this young man was a good actor in imitating the devil only to be rejected from out of total judicial ignorance of his brethren. Proving that most People remain only sheep ready to be fleeced by the devil. To be saved, Christ is teaching we must have truth and we must learn truth in knowledge before we can be as wise as the Devils.

Take note, The Devils will twist and malign to translate their Bibles to teach the written letter of the New Testament “Kills.” The devils twist the Bible records to falsely translate their Bibles to teach the God of the Bible did not give doctrine or instructions for Christians to keep to be saved. Beware of false Bible translations that deceive the Saints with false translated Bibles are filled with blasphemous names (Rev. 17:3b). We must search the ancient languages of the Bible to learn what are the blasphemous names that are mistranslated into our Bible records for the only purpose to deceive us.

The devils translate their Bible to teach there is no continual wicked unrepented sin you can commit to make self unsaved. We are warned to “Be Wise” the deceiving devil is going about as a roaring lion seeking whomever they can devour 1Pet 5:8. Are you so naive to think that you without truth in the knowledge of truth can not be deceived or devoured by the deceit taught in false translations made into the most popular Bibles by the devil?

The Devils teach the apostle Paul lied, when Paul taught very clear that you are saving self when you keep the doctrine or the instructions from God.

From the Ekklesia Bible translation 1Tomothy {4:16}
Take heed to yourself, and to the instructions. Continue in [doing] these things; for in doing this you shall save both yourself and them that hear you.

The Greek name “Ekklesia” Is Not A Church

History Or The Entomology of The Greek Name Ekklesia Is Nothing Like A Church

We will show very clear, how blasphemous names are mistranslated into our Bibles only to deceive the Saints. The name “Ekklesia” established by God for his Saints and the purpose and conduct of the name “Ekklesia” of Christ is nothing like any mistranslated “Blasphemous name” of any “church.”

True History, take note, some five hundred years before the coming of the Christ, The Greek law giver named Solon, copies for the Greeks of Greece some parts of the Hebrew law that God gave to Israel through Moses. The purpose of the new Law by the law giver Solon was to give the Greeks a more fair and equitable law.

Anyone who can read both the Hebrew and the Greek laws can see the very close similarities of the two laws. Certain Hebrew words such as the Hebrew word “Qahal” Solon the Greek law giver gives the name equivalent as “Ekklesia” and the conduct of the Ekklesia is to unite the Greeks, to be a militant Court or Council to make warfare the Greek word “Polemic” is meaning warfare in debate” before the entire “called out” assembly. The main purpose of Ekklesia is to “unite as one man” those who are “called out” and stop division and to stop the clever rich and the money hungry politician (preachers) from changing nuance or the word meaning of the written law from the law giver.

Note this first purpose of the name Qahal or “Ekklesia” is designed by God in the Old Testament through “the Law of Moses” to “unite” the entire “Called Out.” Today this written New Covenant or law, is typified from the Old Testament given first to the Greek as the “Ekklesia” will keep the Greeks of Athens “united as one man” as did the militant Hebrew name Qahal and the law from God united the entire “Called Out” (Ekklesia) of the Hebrews and this law that unites as one man through conduct of the Ekklesia is written first for the Israelites “Ekklesia” and the “Ekklesia” of the Israelites “united Israel as one man.” Note very carefully “Ekklesia is name meaning function of warfare function to “Unite as one man through court or council. Here is the first reference that is made to the Ekklesia of God, written first in the Old Testament Greek Septuagint. Jacob is translated by Jews to use the Militant name “Ekklesia” the same as Christ used the name Ekklesia in indicate spiritual warfare to show the Ekklesia of God is a tool of God in a “Court or a “council” of God. (The Ekklesia) is designed by God needed to unite the entire brotherhood “through the function of Ekklesia. Keep in mind, this Greek Old Testament Septuagint is being read the Greeek, by the writers of the New Testament. Genesis {49:5} Simeon and Levi are brethren; Weapons of violence are their swords. Genesis {49:6} O my soul, come not you into their council; Unto their Ekklesia, my glory, you be not united; For in their anger they slew a man, And in their self-will they hocked an ox.

The Blasphemous name “church” is a false Bible translation from the Greek name “Ekklesia.” Anyone with half a brain who knows what the conduct of the Ekklesia is designed to do, immediately knows name “definition” for the blasphemous name of a “church” is not written just once in the entire ancient languages of the Greek Bible.

Catholics make the false Claim their Church was built on the day of Pentecost. There is nothing written anywhere to indicate The Ekklesia or a “church” of any kind was started on the all night celebration of the night of the day “Mia” called “Pentecost.” Do not be deceived.

The Ekklesia of Christ which is not a “church” is written to be started before God laid the Foundation of the earth. Note this true Ekklesia Bible translated record in Acts.

“This Ekklesia is that Same Ekklesia in the wilderness”
Acts 7:38 This is he that was in the Ekklesia in the wilderness with the messenger that spake to him in the Mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received living oracles to give unto us:

The Greek Saptuagint is the Bible of the men who wrote the New Testament.

Next. in the Spetuagint, we show here is written about the Ekklesia of God when Moses spoke about receiving the law from God on Mount Sinai is “in the day of Ekklesia.” From the Greek Septuagint of the Jews who wrote our New Testament.

Deut {9:7} Remember, forget you not, how you provoked Yehovah your God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that you went forth out of the land of Egypt, until you came unto this place, you have been rebellious against Yehovah. {9:8} Also in Horeb you provoked Yehovah to wrath, and Yehovah was angry with you to destroy you. {9:9} When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which Yehovah made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread nor drink water. {9:10} And Yehovah delivered unto me the two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them [was written] according to all the words, which Yehovah spoke with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the Ekklesia.

Read the Greek Septuagint of the Old Testament is the translated Bible of the same sect of the Jews Christ Chose and it was they who used the Old Testament Septuagint who wrote our New Testament.

In the Ekklesia Bible translation see the name Ekklesia is written some eighty times in the Greek Old Testament of the Jews who wrote our New Testament.

A Copy In some parts from Wikipedia.

Ekklesia The Ancient ecclesia or Ekklesia (Greek: -x Hx κκλησία) was the principal assembly of the democracy of ancient Athens during its "Golden Age" (480–404 BCE). It was the popular assembly, open to all male citizens with 2 years of military service.

It is believed, 500 BC, some of the law given by Solon (the law giver) to the Greeks, The Greek law giver Solon copies parts of laws from the Hebrew Old Testament Torah and Solon gives these more equitable laws of the God the Bible to Greeks of Greece.

Etymology and word meaning<sup>[edit]</sup>

The Hebrew word qahal, which is a close etymological relation of the name of Qoheleth (Ecclesiastes), comes from a root meaning

Where the Masoretic Text of the Jews uses the term qahal, the Greek Old Testament Septuagint usually uses the Koine (common) Greek term Ekklesia, ἐκκλησία,<sup>[11]</sup> which means “summoned group” (literally, “they who are called out”).<sup>[4][5]</sup> [Ekklesia is similar to being drafted into the military] However, in one particular part of the Priestly Code, the Greek Septuagint Old Testament of the Jews instead uses the term συναγωγή,<sup>[6]</sup> literally meaning “gathering”,<sup>[7]</sup> where the Masoretic Text uses qahal.<sup>[8]</sup> This last term is the origin of the word “synagogue”.

Thus, the usual translation of qahal is “congregation” or “assembly”, although

 and סוּד sod,<sup>[14]</sup> are also usually translated like this.<sup>[1]</sup>

In particular, the Biblical text consistently distinguishes between edah and qahal.<sup>[1]</sup> One passage especially makes the distinction clear;<sup>[1]</sup> part of the Priestly Code discusses what to do if “the whole Israelite [‘edah] commits a sin and the [qahal] is not aware of it[.]”<sup>[15]</sup>

Take note, Scholars conclude that the Hebrew qahal must be a judicial body composed of representatives of the edah;<sup>[1]</sup> in some biblical passages, edah is more accurately translated as “swarm”. The Entire “Called Out” is to conduct selves as the jury who are to make any important decisions for what the doctrine (instructions) of the law of God is.<sup>[1]</sup>

In 594 BCE, Solon the law giver to the Greeks allowed all Athenian citizens to participate in the function and vote of the Ekklesia, regardless of class, even the thetes. The thetes (Greek: ἄθροισμα τῶν ἡμέτερων, thêtes, sing. ἡμέτερος, thēs, “serf”) were the lowest social class of citizens in ancient Athens after the political reforms of Solon. The thetes were those who were workers for wages, or had less than 200 medimnoi (or their equivalent) as yearly income.

The entire “Called Out” Court of the Ekklesia assembly was responsible for declaring war, military strategy and electing the stratego and other officials of public office. The entire “Ekklesia” was responsible for nominating and electing magistrates, thus indirectly electing the members of the Areopagus. It had the final say on legislation and the right to call magistrates to account after their year of office. In the 5th century BC its members numbered about 43,000 people.

It would have been difficult, however, for non-wealthy people outside of the urban center of Athens to attend until payments for attendance were introduced in the late 5th century. It originally met once every month, but later it met three or four times per month. The agenda for the Ekklesia was established by the Boule, the popular council. Votes were taken by a show of hands, counting of stones and voting using broken pottery. The assembly consist of: the general(s), a little group of daily government and judges.

A quorum of 6,000 members was required sometimes to do business. The Ekklesia elected by lot annually the Boule or council. Some of their power under Solon was delegated to the Court by Pericles in his reforms.

In ancient Greece an Ekklesiasterion was a building specifically built for the purpose of holding the meetings of the Ekklesia. Like many other cities Athens did not have an Ekklesiasterion. Instead, the regular meetings of the assembly were held outside on the Pnyx and two annual meetings took place in the Theater of Dionysus. Around 300 BC all the meetings of the Ekklesia were moved to the outside or in the open air theater.

The meetings of the assembly could attract large audiences: 6,000 citizens might have attended in Athens during the fifth century BC.<sup>[1]</sup>

A police force of 300 Scythian slaves carried red ochre-stained ropes to induce the men citizens who loitered in the agora of Athens the men who were absent from the meeting, were painted red to cause them to attend the meetings of the assembly. Anyone with red-stained clothes who was not in the meeting was liable to a penalty.<sup>[2][3]</sup>

Contrast The Greek “Apella” of Troy Greece to the Greek Ekklesia of Athens Greece

Etymology of the Greek word “The Apella of Troy Greece.”

The Greek gathering in Troy called the Apella when compared to the Ekklesia is a "cult." "Cult" as in astronomy, when light is "Occulting" from the source of light from the light giver. To occult is at times the source of light is hidden. To occult on an off. In The "cult" of the Apella, The source of the law from the Law giver was not allowed in the Apella at times the source of some laws were mysterious and hidden. In Troy the Cult of the Apella was responsible for electing men to the gerousia for life. Candidates were selected from the aristocrats [wealthy] and presented before the Apella. The candidate who received the loudest applause became a member of the gerousia.

The cult of the Apella also elected the five ephors annually. Ephors presided over meetings of the gerousia and the Apella. They could not run for re-election.

The gerousia presented motions before the Apella. The Entire Apella in Troy was a "Cult" and did not allow the entire assembly to vote on source of Law from the law giver Solon. The entire assembly only voted on the motions made by the wealthy or the rulers. However, unlike the Ekklesia in Athens, the Apella did not allow polemic debate and then vote to represent the consent minds of the majority; it merely approved or disapproved of measures. Moreover, note carefully, the gerousia of the cult of the Apella always had the power to veto the decision made by the entire Apella.

For three hundred years after the coming of Christ, The Roman Saints or what was called the persecuted as “Christians” were named “Ekklesia” or in the Roman Latin “The ecclesiam of Christ.”

Constantine

In the fourth century This most ancient double round “Circe” or “Church” was built by Constantine .

When Constantine started the Catholic blasphemous name the Latin “Circe” that centuries later evolved to be called a “church” he altogether stopped allowing the conduct of the entire control and function of the Ekklesia (Latin Ecclesiam) of Christ. The conduct of first Church the Catholic Church was started (325 A.D) by Constantine and the Conduct of a passive “church” is nothing like the “Called our to Spiritual warfare” of the true “Ekklesia of Christ.”

The function of the Catholic Church with the Pope as the head and the Ecumenical Council as subjected to the head (the Pope) that makes all the decisions for the entire body of their church, is an exact replica of the ancient cult of the Apella in ancient Troy Greece.

Learn the Blasphemous names in false Bible translations. In Bible language the true name “Petros” is a surname for “Pebble” or “Small Rock.” Mat 16:18 Christ compares to himself the man he gives the surname “Petros” meaning “Pebble” or “the Small Rock”, “Christ” is the metaphor of “Petra.” Here is the metaphor of the surname of the small but highly valued “Little Rock.”

4074 Pétros (a masculine noun) – properly, a stone (pebble), such as a small rock found along a pathway. 4074 /Pétros ("small stone") then stands in stark contrast to 4073 /pétra a known city and mountain fortress ("cliff, boulder," see Abbott-Smith).

"4074 (Pétros) is an isolated rock and 4073 (pétra) is a cliff"of rock (TDNT, 3, 100). "4074 (Pétros) always means a stone . . . such as a man may throw, . . . versus 4073 (pétra), a projecting rock, cliff" (S. Zodhiates, Dictionary).

Below is the metaphor Christ spoke of the “Petra” a fortress city located in the ancient “Promised Land” “The Unconquerable Mountain Fortress” of “Petra.”

For your salvation, be careful to chose the correct Bible translation from these Two complete opposite Bible Translations of Matthew chapter 16 verse 18.

In the Entire Bible This is One of the most important Bible verses to understand the purpose of the Ekklesia of Christ. Here is the translation from the free Ekklesia Bible with some blasphemous names removed and we compare this Bible translation to all other Bible translations that are translated with their blasphemous names that deceive the Saints. From this Web site is www.ekklesiabible.com

The Free Ekklesia Bible translation Mat 16:13} Now when Y'ehsus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say that the Son of man is? {16:14} And they said, Some [say] John the Immerser; some, Elijah; and others, Yeremiah, or one of the prophets. {16:15} He said unto them, But who say you that I am? {16:16} And Simon Petros [The Small Stone] answered and said, you are the Christ, the Son of the living God. {16:17} And Y'ehsus answered and said unto him, Blessed are you, Simon son of-Jonah: for flesh and blood has not revealed it unto you, but my Father who is in heaven. {16:18} And I also say unto you, that you are the Pebble [the Small Stone] but in this Petra [the unconquerable mountain fortress], I will edify [the court of] my Ekklesia; and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against her.

{16:19} I will give unto you [the court of my Ekklesia] the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and what so ever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and what so ever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Now here is the beauty of this Ekklesia Bible translation, this Ekklesia Bible translation is an open for dispute. The Ekklesia Bible is the only open for dispute Bible translation in the entire world. If you understand the conduct of Ekklesia is the tool of God designed with the purpose only to unite the Saints of God. Without the physical sword that was first used by the Catholic church to murder millions who oppose their false “Church” doctrines, all Churches can not stop dividing. The Ekklesia of Christ is designed by Christ to be impossible for the Ekklesia of Christ to be divided. Learn the conduct of Ekklesia and then compare to a “church.” They are not the same.

Here is the revised version of the first Bible translation ever made by the Catholic church and her “Blasphemous names” are copied into all the protestant Bible translations.

Mat 16: 13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?
14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.
15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?
16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.
17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.
18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

(Keep the context of Catholic translation, the warfare of a “Church the object of an “it” (a Church building” and the Keys will be given not to the it or a church building but to a “Thee” but the keys to the kingdom will be given to a person or “Thee” or “you” also can be to the plural of persons.

19 And I will give unto thee [Peter] the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou [Peter] shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou (Peter) shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Note in this false Bible translations made by using blasphemous names, it would not make sense to give The keys to the kingdom of heaven to a “church building” which is the object of a thing or and object of the “it.”

With the world of Scholarly Bible students, How this most stupid, twisted and false Bible translations has lasted for so many centuries is completely without a good answer.

Then in the very clever and twisted false Bible translation the only “person” mentioned would be to give the keys to a person by the name of “Peter.”

Which is the true Bible translation of this verse that makes any reasonable sense? Anyone who has made any analytical study of the Bible can answer truth of which the different Bible translations is the true Bible translation. A teacher that knows his Bible and looks up word definition of the Greek names don’t need to know the Greek grammar to get the correct answer to which is the true Bible translation of Matthew 16:18.

The most fallacious Bible translation are full of names of Blasphemy, made first by the Catholic Church and then followed by all protestant Churches in their false Bible translations of blasphemous names in all their Bible translations. When we reveal the true word definition of blasphemous names so you can easily see and learn true names and true words meanings, only then The blasphemous names that are added to this Bible record can be deleted. Even a Child can see this clever twisting in the false Bible translations of the Catholic Church in Mat 16:18.

First let us establish the foundation upon which Christ is giving this statement in Mat 16:18.

Who is this so called translated Bible name “Peter” made by the Catholic Church. Technically The name “Peter” is not written just once in the entire “Bible.” Reading From the Ekklesia Bible translation. John 1:42 He brought him unto Y’ehsus the Christ. Y’ehsus looked upon him, and said, you shall be called Kephaz, which is by interpretation, “A “Pebble” or “Small Rock.” You are Simon the son of Jonah: you shall be called kephas or meaning in Aramaic “the little Rock” (which is by -Greek interpretation, “Petros” also meaning “the Pebble or the Little Rock”). Christ give the name “Petros.”

The apostle that is translated by the Catholic Church as “Peter” is actually correctly transliterated as Christ gives the true Greek name “Petros.” Christ gives Simon son of Jonah, the true Bible Aramaic name of “Kephaz.” Simon son of Jonah you are named by Christ in the Aramaic as “Kephaz” or the Aramaic Kephaz is correctly transliterated into the Latin of the Catholic Church as the name “Cephas” or “Chephas” but the name Peter is not tCorrectly transliterated into the Latin as the “Peter.” Christ gives the apostle Simon the Greek name “Kephaz”

(not the Catholic Latin Cephas) which is correctly translated into the English as the apostle by the name of a “Pebble” or “The Little Rock.”

This Aramaic name “Kephas” is meaning “The Little Rock” and is correctly transliterated as the name “Petros” or the name meaning a Pebble or “The Little Rock.” Christ will give Simon son of Jonah this new Aramaic name “Kephas” (meaning only “The Little Rock”) which has the same name meaning in the Greek “Petros” (“The Little Rock”).

Mat 16:18 Christ said “I will Edify my Ekklesia” the need for truth to be saved to unite the entire Saints of God in the warfare made against the false teaching that deceives the Saints and leads the Spirits of the Saints (those who are in the Ekklesia) into the Gates of Hell. This is the difference between the Ekklesia of Christ and a “church of Christ, they are not the same in the authority of their “name.” The name “Church” is a “blasphemous name” made purposely by Constantine who started the Catholic Church, with the purpose to deceive the Saints with blasphemous names.

“Gates of hell” compared to truth “The gate of Hell.” Note in the Greek word “Poo -lay or “gate” is written in the singular but there does exist the plural of Gates that lead the “Called Out” or the Spirits of the Ekklesia into hell. So most Bible translators translate in the plural of “Gates.” (See Strong § 8“:—s Greek word number 4439 πύλη pule poo β-lay “gate.”)

To add the plural of “Gates” does not change doctrine or the instructions of Christ.

Christ is giving the intensity and the veracity of the Spiritual warfare, a hot on fierce struggle that his Bride

(The Ekklesia) is being made against the gates that will lead the spirits of the Saints into Hades or into Hell Fire (What ever you determine this horrendous place Hades or fire of Hell to be).

What Christ is saying to discover truth of his word is saving the spirits of those who are in the Ekklesia through the conduct of the struggle made in warfare of the Ekklesia of Christ against the “gates of hell” only when Christ is edifying his Ekklesia, so the words of Christ in warfare (polemic debate) will kill the false teaching of the gates that lead into hell. Christ Said The gates that leads into hell can not win and because the gates of Hell can not win or the gates of hell can not divide the Ekklesia of Christ. Then Ekklesia is designed by God to unify the Saints in contrast to a church that is designed to divide the Saints without the physical sword to keep them united.

What Christ has established so that his Ekklesia is to be edified in Christ, (as his bride the “Ekklesia”) by the teaching of Christ the word of Christ, is to be edifying the Ekklesia -in the metaphor of “Petra.” The metaphor of “Petra” is the known to exist as the unconquerable mountain fortress located in the ancient “Promised Land.” Christ clearly is teaching This Ekklesia of Christ is making spiritual warfare against the gate of Hades and is translated “Hell” (a place no one wants to go there) Mat 16:18.

Let us now examine some Bible names and some Greek words and their word or name definitions and then compare to the blasphemous names that are purposely mistranslated into the Bible record to deceive the Saints.

1) Some Bible names must be transliterated because there is no nuance or English equivalent.

The most written name of “Christ” is written and pronounced as “Y’ehsus” (the letter “s” indicates the masculine. See Strong :—8“:—s Greek word number 2424 Ἰησοῦς Iesus yee-ay-sooce, pronounced with the soft “Y.” (See rules for Greek Grammar for the pronunciation of two Greek vowels in front of the name. (See how this word Y’ehsus is written from the Greek rules of grammar in the contraction in the grammar of the ancient Bible languages, which involves elision. For contraction in Ancient Greek and the coalescence of two vowels into one, see instructions by Crasis. For the linguistic function of pronouncing two vowels together see the first to Greek vowels “iota” “ata” as is written in the true Greek name of the Christ, see rules of Greek grammar by Synaeresis).

2) The name “Pebble” which is the Aramaic as “Kephas” or the Greek name “Petros” becomes a very important name that with some Bible translators they will make the name “Peter” a name of Blasphemy made to deceive as a “Rock” without revealing the kind of a “Little Rock” or the name Christ gives to Simon Son of Jonah is “Pebble” or “Little Rock.”

The true name Christ gives to Simon son of Jonah is written in the Greek as “Petros.” The name meaning “Petros” is “Pebble.” 4074 πέτρος Petros pet -ros apparently a primary word; Theological Dictionary of New Testament-6:100,835; n pr m Authorized Version times translated as-Peter 161, stone 1; 162

Petros =” a small rock or a little stone or pebble”

1) one of the twelve disciples of Y’ehsus

2 The words “And” or “But” Strong’s Greek word number 2532 και kai kahee apparently, a primary particle, having a copulative and sometimes also a cumulative force; ; conj Times translated in the Authorized Version -”and” see Strong’s Greek word number 8173, is translated also 514, even translated 108 times, both 43 times, then 20 times, so 18, likewise 13, not tr. 350, misc 31, vr and 1; altogether translated some 9251 times.

A) and, also, even, indeed, but

2) Note this Greek word “Eti” word meaning either “and” or “but.” (See translated “In” Mat 16:17

A) “But in this Petra = “in” “Christ” who is the metaphor of the awesome unconquerable mountain fortress that exists in the promised land. See Stron’s Greek word number [8173]

B) And In this Petra = awesome unconquerable mountain fortress.

3) “Gate of Hades” Note this Greek word for A “Gate” is not written in the plural as “Gates” (See Strong :— 8“:—s Greek word number 4439 πύλη pule poo -lay “gate.”) Translated as “gates” because there is known to be more than one way [Gates] that will lead the spirit into spiritual death or into the plural of gates “ways” that will lead the spirit into Hades or Hell. To have a true translation of this verse is necessary to translate in the singular as “ the gate.” However “gates” does not change Doctrine or instructions from God.

4) “Can not prevail against “it.” Note this Greek word must be translated “Gender inclusive” as “against Her.” Impossible to be correctly translated as a object of “It” or a “thing.” Is never correctly translated as an object of an “It” see Strong :—8“:—s Greek 846 αυτος autos ow-tos from the particle au [perhaps akin to the base of 109 through the idea of a baffling wind] (backward); ; pron translated in the Authorized version -him 1952, his 1084, their 318, he 253, her 242, they 121, same 80, himself 58, misc 1679; altogether translated 5787 times.

1) himself, herself, themselves, itself

2) he, she, it

3) the same

Here is The first Catholic Bible translation that also later becomes same as the king James Bible translation. The most ancient deceptive teaching of the Catholic church.

“You are Peter and Upon this Rock (Peter) I will build my church and the gates of hell will not prevail against what is mentioned before as a pronoun of “it’ “a church it’ and the church “it is “the object,” or “the Thing” of an “it” which It” is indicative only of a “Church Building.” Here is where Bible translators fail to translate correctly as in the “gender inclusive.” Note carefully the Catholic translation is the object of the “It” is a “thing” that is mentioned before and this false Bible translation is saying the warfare is made from “on Peter and this man named “Peter” or “Rock”( but Catholics reject the true name “PEBBLE” OR “LITTLE ROCK.”) The Catholic Bible translates their “Christ” is saying he will build a “church” as an object of “It” indicating only “a church building” or as an object of a thing or and “it” which would indicate a “church Building” will prevail over the gates of hell. “It” as an object or a thing called “it” indicating “a church building” that will in warfare as the object the “it” the “church building” it” is translated to overcome the gates of hell.

Note in this Bible translation of the Catholic Church nothing is said about warfare being made through conduct of the Court of “The Ekklesia” or “the called out people” but the object of “it” the warfare is made from that object of a thing that this Christ of the Catholic church is said to build on a man named “Rock” or named “Peter” who never was a Pope and there is no Bible record that says the apostle Petros (The Pebble) ever went to Rome. Records of the apostle “Petros” show the apostle Simon” or “Petros” remained at the least twenty years after the ascension of Christ as an elder of the Ekklesia in Jerusalem (see Acts chapter 15 which is understood to be written some twenty years after the ascension of Christ.).

Now note The apostle Petros” “The Pebble’ never is a head over the “it” of any kind of any church or head over a church building.

The apostle “Petros” Christ is naming “the pebble” or “the little Rock” was never the head over “the Ekklesia of Christ” which is nothing like any “Church” or any “Church building.” Then the name “church” is a blasphemous name that in the authority of the name “church” speaks Injurious against the God of the Bible and the blasphemous name “church” is deceiving the Saints who believe that a “church” is the same as the Ekklesia of Christ. A Church is not the same in conduct and purpose of warfare against the gates of hell as is the spiritual warfare of the Ekklesia of Christ.

Now note this true Ekklesia Bible translation. Mat 16:17 Note keep this context, Petros Said To Christ; “you are the Christ the son of the living God” Keep this context. Christ replies to Petros, You are “Petros”(or You are The Little Rock) but in this fact that you Petros have just stated, that I am the son of the living God, “Petros in your confession you describe me (the son of the living God) as the “Petra.” (and the “Petra” is the metaphor of the known “The unconquerable Mountain Fortress”) “and or but” “IN THIS PETRA” of your confession is The unconquerable “MOUNTAIN FORTRESS” that I will edify my Ekklesia, when in warfare, I will edify my Ekklesia I will Edify or I will give you truth or the ammunition needed to win the war, I will give you the truth needed to win the war over the gates of Hell” and what I edify I will keep my Ekklesia from dividing. when I edify I will keep my Ekklesia united and when I edify truth will stop my Ekklesia from dividing. We need to learn -How Christ will Edify his Ekklesia so that the gates of hell can not overcome or divide the Ekklesia of Christ.

“In this Petra,” in the Context of what Petros just confessed “your are the Son of the living God” Christ is saying (“In Me the Petra” I am the Unconquerable mountain fortress) In me, I will edify (my court of my) Ekklesia and the gates of Hades will not overcome “her”

(My bride or my Ekklesia) [translated gender inclusive].
The name “Ekklesia” must be correctly translated “gender inclusive” as the gates can not overcome “her” and can not be correctly translated as the object of an “it” or a “thing.”

The Catholics and the protest copy the Catholic translation to Say the building is upon Peter I will build a Church “it or a building..

1) The Catholic translation has Christ Saying upon Peter I will build a Church “it” the object of a thing is a “Church building.”

Ekklesia Bible translations, In this Petra (the unconquerable mountain fortress) I will edify my “Ekklesia” (which is the entire Ekklesia in conduct as a “jury” as in a “court trial” made up of the entire “called out” people the Saints of God) and the gates of Hades or Hell can not win over her “My Ekklesia” that I am “edifying” or if you prefer “the Saints of my Ekklesia that “I am building them up by edifying so they can not be overcome by the gates of hell.”

False and the most ridiculous false Bible translation made first by the Catholic church.

2) The Catholioc church translate Christ to be saying You are “Peter” and the Greek wor Eti is acrtual is saying “Eti” or “in me” but instead “is mistranslated to say “on” this “Rock Peter” I will build my Church building”

The Catholic translation is teaching

2) Catholic teach Christ is building a Church building as the object of the “it” or a Church Building Christ is -not translated as Edifying his Ekklesia for the spiritual war that is being made in unifying the Ekklesia of Christ against the Gates of hell that divide churches.

Christ is clearly saying there is a spiritual struggle, a war is being made between the Ekklesia of Christ and the gates that will lead the spirit of the Saints into Hades or Hell. The gate or “gates” of Hades can not win over the Ekklesia because Christ is edifying, only when “I edify my Ekklesia” and when you conduct self to allow Christ to edify which edifying is done only through the conduct of (established court ) of the Ekklesia. Only through conduct of Ekklesia can the Ekklesia of Christ prevail (win in the war) over the gate that leads the spirits of the Saints into hell.

Everywhere the ancient Ekklesia is understood to be The Court of the Ekklesia is established by God to be “Called Out” by the law giver and the “Ekklesia” is established as a “court” to determine true source of law from the Law giver. If this fact is overlooked, it is the responsibility of the established “entire court” of the entire Ekklesia of Christ to decide source of doctrine (instructions or law from God) what is to be taught as “Doctrine” in the “Ekklesia” or “in” the everlasting kingdom of God. You should be able to see the great difference between the Ekklesia of Christ and the blasphemous name of a “Church.”

False Catholic translation.

Mat 16:18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.”

1) The false Catholic Translation reads “On this Rock” of (Peter) in a warfare of an “it’ (look at “it’ which is only “The object or a thing”) as a “church building,” and the “it’ is making war against the gates of hell, that the

“it” “church Building” can not lose the warfare between the church building and the gates of hell.

The true Ekklesia Bible translation

2) The Ekklesia Bible translation reads, Christ said “You are Petros” (you are only a “Pebble” or just a “Little Rock”) but “in” see Strong § 8“:—s Greek word number 1909 ἐπι ἐπι ep-ee /8“β “In [me] this Petra” (“in” the metaphor of” being -in this unconquerable mountain fortress”) the spiritual warfare is being made in such a manner that when I edify “My Ekklesia” my Ekklesia will win the war against the gates of hell, (only when I am edifying My Ekklesia). When I edify my Ekklesia, my “Ekklesia” it is not possibly for my Ekklesia to lose in this war against the gates of hell. When I edify my Ekklesia the gates of hell can not overcome or divide my Ekklesia. Don’t tell me you can not see a world of difference in these two complete opposite Bible translations of the Ekklesia of Christ and the Catholic mistranslations of the blasphemous name of a “Church” ‘it’ or “building” built upon Peter.

1) The first Catholic translation is making Peter the head over a church building (the “it”) and the gates of hell can not overcome the church building (it). Now you can see how the Catholic church deceives her people in this false Bible translation to get their money to build the most extravagant “HOLY CHURCH” buildings.

2) The Ekklesia Bible translation, Christ is declaring he is the head over “Her” the Ekklesia and when he is edifying his Ekklesia so that in the spiritual warfare, the gates that lead the spirit of the Saints into hell can not deceive the Saints when the Saints are edified through the conduct of the “Court” of “her” or his bride the Ekklesia of Christ.
