Good-By Church Hello Ekklesia

Our heavenly Father has designed the individual to create from the seat of human emotions, or from the heart create a genuine benevolent care for the welfare of all others through the conduct of Ekklesia,. The agape love. the genuine benevolent care for the welfare of one for the other, from within the Ekklesia of Christ, is established by God before He laid the foundations of the earth, Ekklesia, Ekklesia, where have you been for the last seventeen hundred years of hell on earth, pain and torture, and the burning alive at the stake by the churches that are designed by the mother of all churches, the Catholic church, to hate one church for the other?

A church is nothing in conduct like the genuine benevolent care for the welfare of others like the Ekklesia of Christ. Don't tell me you can not see that the blasphemous name Churches are the damnation and a curse to the entire world. Just look what churches have caused the entire world to be come. Just look at past world History of the hatred, the war of pain and torture, and a world of different kinds of slow pain and a slow death that is the design of one church in power over the other churches.

The churches of Christ tried to restore the conduct of Ekklesia and to unite every church in the entire world as one church. This restoration of Church of Christ to remain as one "church" when they conduct selves as Ekklesia, church history show this "restoration of a Church" they in conduct of Ekklesia, they became the fastest growing church in the entire world. Keep in mind they were still just another ‘Church’ and not the established Ekklesia of Christ. In this restoration movement many in the restoration pointed out we need to restore the name together with conduct as the true Ekklesia of Christ. Because in their showing their love for all others and in conduct of true Ekklesia the churches of Christ were at first the fastest growing church in the entire world and uniting professing Christian from many differing kind of faith into one in Christ, the millions and most members of the church of Christ could not see the need to reject the blasphemous name of a “church” and restore the true name Ekklesia.

God designed for his Ekklesia is to create in the heart of each individual to hold a genuine benevolent care for welfare of every professing Christian in the entire world.

History of Churches prove they believe they are loving you by creating the most horrendous tool of torture that the world has ever seen and then first after giving you horrendous pain and suffering by torture and then they will finish you off by burning you alive at the stake. Don’t you believe the lies of Churches, it in their design out of hatred if they could, today they hate you and they would be torturing and burning alive at the stake if they were in power.

Look at the history of the first “Church” the design of a church is designed only by the mother of all churches the Catholic church is designed to be full of a world of hate, torture, and if she could this very day she would burn you alive at the stake. All Churches are designed to unite as one only through first the most painful designed instruments of torture, then murder the opposition by burning alive at the stake all those in all other churches who reason their belief in God different. Churches are designed to be A world of hate, a kind of a hateful warfare between member churches to cause only more hatred and more church division. Study this subject and learn truth the conduct of churches are not designed by the mother of all Churches, the first church, the Catholic Church to be anything like the love for one another like our God has establish for the Ekklesia of Christ.

It is true God established his Ekklesia to be a kind of warfare but this warfare is a warfare of Ekklesia is designed by our heavenly Father to only out of agape love for ever other professing Christian for every Saint in the entire world. The Established Ekklesia of Christ is designed with the purpose of a genuine love and care for the welfare of other churches, to cause to want first out of a genuine benevolent care to unite the brotherhood out of the genuine benevolent care for the welfare of every professing Christian in the entire world. You will never see this genuine benevolent care expressed for the welfare of all those in all other churches. You will only see this kind of Agape love for everyone in the Ekklesia, the kind of love for everyone in every church of the entire world. Only through the conduct of the established Ekklesia of God do you see a genuine benevolent care for the welfare of all even when you have become the enemy like Catholic church and all protestants churches hate and want to first torture you nearly to death and then burn you alive at the stake. History of all churches and the blood of the martyred are a witness and are crying out from the ground of the hatred found only in one church for the other churches.

In conduct of Ekklesia this love for the other is expressed for the purpose of unifying through a kind of love warfare God has designed His Ekklesia with the purpose to Unify out of love for one another. Churches of thousands of different doctrines (instructions all making the false claim to be the only true instructions from God) can not possibly unite out of love with one another because they are mortal enemies and they all with a passion create a deadly hate one for the other. Churches will lie and say that they love others but don't you believe them, they prove by the hatred they will not dare to conduct Ekklesia in their membership from out of a genuine benevolent care for those in other churches of a different belief so they can become one through conduct of Ekklesia.

After Christ established His Ekklesia and he died for her with a purpose to unite the brotherhood. The churches hate one another so much they do not even call the other church a brother or a sister. In the Bible history of Ekklesia, and in secular History of the first Church, it was Three hundred years after the coming of the Christ the Catholic church stopped the conduct of Ekklesia and started the first Church of hatred in the entire world and the catholic church stopped the established conduct to agape love another through Ekklesia that had ruled to unify the Saints for the first three hundred years after the coming of the Christ.

It is past time to say good by to all churches and restore in every Saint of God from the heart a genuine benevolent care for the welfare of every professing Christian in the entire world and restore true conduct of the established Ekklesia of Christ.
